

WHY PARTICIPATE?

Share Your Story

You can maximize your study abroad experience by sharing your favorite photos, memories, and experiences with others. Relive and share the most memorable times of your life.

Connect With Peers

You can reconnect with past students as a way to share your experience abroad, maintain your language skills, and learn more about the cultural immersion experiences of others.

Contribute to the Future

You can contribute to the future of NRCSA by giving us your opinion. We want to tailor our programs to the expressed desires of our students.

ABOUT THE NRCSA CONSORTIUM

The NRCSA Consortium was founded in 1968 with the goal of facilitating international studies and understanding. To date over 80,000 people have successfully completed our courses abroad including teens, university students, professionals and mature adults from the USA and abroad. We invite you to expand your international multicultural skills and benefit from the increasingly linked global community.

NRCSA Consortium centers offer value and a record of success. We look forward to helping you find the program that best matches your needs.

Have the Opportunity to:

- Share photos from your trip
- Write a story about a memorable travel experience
- Connect with other students who went abroad
- Share your knowledge with new students
- Start a culture club to spread the word
- Travel again!

VOICE

As a Voice you can directly influence NRCSA programming.

- Work on a guide for the location you studied at
- Mentor new students
- Email study@nrca.com to be a part of Voice and begin helping future students today!

STEERING COMMITTEE

The Steering Committee is an exclusive group that meets to elucidate the needs of current travelers and to brainstorm creative programs that can be implemented. This is a chance to take part in something larger at NRCSA.

Members work alongside Program Coordinators and must apply to be in this committee. Applications can be received by contacting study@nrca.com.

MEDIA CONTRIBUTOR

- As a NRCSA Alum, you can contribute to future programs by sharing photos and writing pieces.
- Photos are a powerful way to convey your experience; your photos can be shared with past and future students.
- You can write articles on what you learned abroad to be published on our newsletter and posted to our a blog.

How to:

Sharing photos is as simple as emailing them and filling out a photo release at <http://alumni.nrca.com>. Writing an article is as simple as “okaying” a topic with one of the NRCSA coordinators and writing a 400-600 word piece. Photos and articles can be sent to study@nrca.com.

AMBASSADOR

You have the important and fun opportunity to recruit other students. At NRCSA, we have a system of rewards to thank all of our students for helping to spread the word.

Ways you can be an Ambassador:

Simply SUGGEST A PROGRAM to a friend, neighbor, co-worker or fellow student. By doing this, you get a $40 thanks once they register.

Organize people to TAKE A GROUP. By getting a group together, you can tailor the activities to the interests of the group. When you get a group of 10 people together, you go for free!

You can HOST A MEETING in your community or at your college campus to inform others about all of the study abroad experiences that you had and that others can have through NRCSA as well.

Start a CULTURE CLUB in your community or found a college group. As a leader, NRCSA will support you with ideas for cultural art nights, food events, and speakers. This is an excellent leadership opportunity!
