CITY AND COUNTRY INFO

Ever since the nineteenth-century revival of interest in the art of the Renaissance, Florence has been a shrine to the cult of the beautiful. Close up, however, it does not immediately impress visitors as a beautiful city. The marble-clad Baptistery and Duomo are stupendous, of course, the architectural perfection of the latter's dome as celebrated now as it ever was. But these colorful monuments are not typical of the city as a whole: the streets of the historic centre are often narrow and dark, their palaces robust and intimidating, and few of the city's squares are places where you'd want to pass an idle hour.

However, Florence is a city of incomparable indoor pleasures, its chapels, galleries and museums an inexhaustible treasure, embodying the complex, exhilarating and often elusive spirit of the Renaissance more fully than any other place in the country, and few leave completely disappointed, Florence became the centre of artistic patronage in Italy under the Medici family, who made their fortune in banking and ruled the city as an independent state for some three centuries, most auspiciously during the years of Lorenzo de' Medici, tagged "Il Magnifico", who held fiercely onto Florentine independence in the face of papal resentment. Later, in the late eighteenth century, Florence fell under Austrian and then French rule, and in the nineteenth century was for a short time the capital of the kingdom of Italy. The story of Florence since then has been fairly low-key, and nowadays the monuments and paintings of the city's Renaissance heyday are the basis of its survival.

FULL PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

STUDY PROGRAM

The study portion of the program includes 20 hours per week of Group Italian classes with a 2 week minimum. Maximum number of students per class is 10, with the average being 8 students. Groups are organized in a way that each will always consist of students possessing the same level of Italian.

All of our teachers are native speakers with university educations and are very experienced teaching Italian to foreigners. Most have learned a second language themselves and understand the student's perspective.

The method is based on the 4 language skills: listening, grammar, oral and written comprehension. No English will be used in class. Classes are 45 minutes in length.

Our program is divided into 6 levels of study. The first 4 are concentrated on grammar, vocabulary, practical situations, and conversation. The next 2 levels, advanced and superior, focus mainly on conversation and advanced reading and writing topics.

ENGRAVING PROGRAM

With our engraving course you can discover and practice all the engraving techniques:

- Acquaforte / Etching
- Puntasecca / Drypoint
- Ceramolle / Softground
- Xilografia / Woodcut

"Acquaforte" is the ancient Italian term which refers to the nitric acid which is still used today to etch a copper or zinc plate.

The plate is covered with a layer of wax which the artist removes by drawing with a fine point, and it is then immersed in the acid which "bites" in the places where the wax has been removed.

The lines obtained in this way are darker or lighter according to the time of immersion, and when printed give the effect of shading desired.

The plate is then placed on the etching press, and covered with a dampened sheet of paper. When the plate is ready for printing, it is inked and cleaned with a gauze cloth called tarlatan to remove excess ink.

The etching press is composed of two rollers between which the bed or metal sheet with the paper on top of it slides, and with pressure forces the damp paper into the inked lines of the etching plate, thus transferring the ink to the paper.

This procedure (inking, cleaning, and printing) is repeated for each copy made.

Naturally the passage of the plate through the press tends eventually to weaken the etched lines, and this limits the number of copies possible in an edition.

Finally, when dry, each copy of the etching is numbered and signed by the artist.

LODGING OPTIONS

HOMESTAY

Single or double room, with breakfast, or half board. Most of the host families have worked with us for many years. The families know from experience what the role of a host is. Living with a host family offers you the opportunity to become quickly into the Italian society. Nowhere else will you so directly experience real Italian life. The word 'family' should not be taken too literally, because your family could also be a single parent or a childless couple who take in students because they enjoy the company.

SHARED APARTMENT

Single or double room, shared use of kitchen, bathroom and shower, living room and other common areas. You share a flat or floor of a house either with other students from our school, with other Italian students or with the owner. In selecting the apartments, we do not look for luxury and comfort in material sense, but the apartments are furnished with all essential utilities (bed, table, chair, wardrobe). Kitchen and bathroom are of common use.
