It has many contrasting examples of architecture, such as the Lonja, which dates from the 15th century, the modern museum of the IVAM, or the newly constructed City of Sciences and Arts, considered to be one of the most attractive centers of culture and relaxation found in Europe. The culinary delights of Valencia are well known throughout the world. Its famous Paella, traditionally cooked slowly over an open fire, and an amazing variety of rice and fish dishes are enough to delight any visitor.
