An old town because of its history dating back to 581 AD, a young town because of its development and expansion, Vitoria provides ample cultural, environmental and social services enjoyed by its some 220,000 inhabitants. One of the most scenic spots in all of the city is the Virgen Blanca Square, a favorite of locals and tourists alike.

Included in this area are the must-visit Gothic churches of Santa Maria, San Vicente, San Pedro and San Miguel, and the Renaissance palaces of Montehermoso and Villa Suso.
