CITY AND COUNTRY INFO

Aix-en-Provence is a spa town with Roman origins and baptized "Ville d'Eau - Ville d'Art" (city of water - city of art). This picturesque city owes some of its fame to the painter Paul Cézanne.

Over the centuries numerous artists have been charmed by the light of this city. Its narrow streets, multicolored facades, its fountains and its markets attract visitors from all over the world. Aix-en-Provence is a young and lively university city with about 30,000 students.

The natural and cultural heritage which surrounds it also offers lots to discover : the historic cities Arles, Avignon and Nîmes, the Lubéron, the gorges of the Verdon and of course the mountain Sainte-Victoire which is the pride of the "Aixois" (people from Aix), the beaches and the 'Calanques' (rocky inlets in the Mediterranean) which are 30 minutes away by car.

Homestay Options

The majority of families in Aix-en-Provence are within walking distance of the school, approximately 5 to 20 minutes. Student are placed with a variety of carefully selected families, and we do our best to accommodate all special requests. Many students find that living with local French families helps to improve language skills and understanding and appreciation of the culture.
