CITY AND COUNTRY INFO

Valencia, located on the Mediterranean coast of Spain, just in front of the Balearic islands, is a medium-sized city with a population of about 800,000. The city possesses long, wide beaches, extensive promenades and several nautical clubs, where students can take part in many types of aquatic sports. Valencia has become one of the most sought after tourist destinations due to the high number of days of sunshine it receives per year and its temperate climate.

Valencia also has a rich historical, cultural and artistic atmosphere to offer its visitors. It has many contrasting examples of architecture, such as the Lonja which dates from the 15th century and has been declared "Patrimony of Humanity" to the modern museum of the IVAM, or the newly constructed City of Sciences and Arts, considered to be one of the most attractive centers of culture and relaxation found in Europe.

HIGHLIGHTS OF PROGRAM

After participating in this Study & Volunteer Program in Valencia, students will gain experience in foreign poverty and need first hand while helping others in severe need, greatly improve foreign language abilities, gain personal growth and confidence both nationally and internationally through service, and combine travel, academics, and community service into one incredible life-changing experience.
