ABOUT THE SCHOOL AND THE CITY

Universidad Internacional, also known as Center for Bilingual Multicultural Studies, was founded in 1980 and is affiliated with more than 100 universities, colleges and institutions in the United States, Canada, Japan and Europe, as well with the Universidad Autónoma del Estado de Morelos.

Universidad’s facilities include a library, bookstore, money exchange office, copy center, cafeteria, computer lab, and fax and telephones services. All students have full Internet access (E-mail, telnet, Web). In addition, Universidad offers services such as medical attention, academic advising and student counseling. Universidad Internacional is staffed by native, experienced, well-qualified, Spanish-speaking instructors.

Cuernavaca, the capital of the State of Morelos, is located just about an hour south of Mexico City. It is a small city of 500,000 inhabitants with the many advantages of a large city. Because of its mild climate year-round, it is known as “The City of Eternal Spring”. Cuernavaca’s proximity to Mexico City affords students the opportunity to take advantage of the capital to the fullest.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Intensive Spanish Language Program

The Intensive Spanish Language Program consists of 15 hours weekly of small group Spanish classes, maximum 5 students per class, with an emphasis on oral skills plus 15 hours weekly of larger lecture style grammar classes, social science and humanities courses on Latin America and Hispano-America.

The Programs

Intensive Spanish Language Program The Intensive Spanish Language Program offers the opportunity to experience an intensive study of Spanish, and Latin American culture for individuals whatever their interest or professional and educational career may be. The program consists of 15 hours weekly of small group Spanish classes with an emphasis on oral skills plus 15 hours weekly of larger lecture style grammar classes, social science and humanities courses on Latin America and Hispano-America. These Latin American Studies Courses are an integrated part of the language study curriculum.

The program is designed to develop conversational fluency in the shortest time possible. Classrooms are maintained with no more than five students and a “Total Immersion” Spanish-only policy is maintained. The program is dedicated to meet the individual's needs, profession and Spanish proficiency level.

A typical daily schedule begins at 8.00 in the morning and ends at 16.00(4:00PM), Monday through Friday:

- 3 hours of Spanish classes in a group with a maximum of 5 students.
- 2 hours of Latin American Studies Courses
- 1 hour of lectures (Conferencia)
- 2 hours of optional classes

Intensive Spanish Executive Programs In response to the increasing demands of business executives and cognizant of the special needs of corporate training programs, Universidad Internacional offers an extremely accelerated Intensive Spanish Executive Program. The program has been designed and developed to fit the busy schedules of business executives and managers by providing them with the advantage of intensive Spanish with the guarantee of communicating in Spanish within a short period of time. The program is designed for all levels from beginners to advanced, and for individuals or groups.

Intensive Spanish Executive Program A consists of 15 hours weekly of Spanish Tutorial one-on-one combined with 30 hours weekly of Group Spanish and Cultural Studies.

Intensive Spanish Executive Program B is divided into 30 hours weekly of Spanish Tutorial one-on-one and 15 hours weekly of Group Spanish and Cultural Studies.

Cultural Studies include cross cultural training in business, conversational workshops that focus on professional work situations, and other topics such as Mexican history, politics, economy, sociology, psychology, health, literature, and art.

The one-on-one individual Spanish language classes are designed according to the participant's interests, level of Spanish and academic and/or professional needs. Classes usually begin every Monday throughout the year. It is recommended that students arrive on the Friday prior to beginning classes. On Saturday, the school gives an orientation class, a placement test and oral interview to determine the student's Spanish level. A minimum of at least two weeks is recommended. The starting date for the Intensive Spanish Executive Program can be tailored according to each individual's work.

Comments

"My experience living with a Mexican family was the real highlight of my trip. Administration very cordial and helpful. My overall experience was extremely pleasant."

-Crossing Guard, New York, NY

"Excellent. I even caught the right bus to Cuernavaca. I appreciate the prompt, personal help I got on the phone also. I read all the material you sent. I have already recommended your services to several other teachers. I don't know what I enjoyed most - the location in Cuernavaca, the homestay, the school giving so much - the classes so well done - the excitement of Mexican culture - I loved it. Nina Noroz family - very clean - excellent cooking. Alberto and the daughter were also helpful teachers. I want to go back to their family this year. The school was great. They were very helpful and even accepted a suggestion I gave - They were wonderful about writing recommendations for me."

-Teacher, Spokane, WA

"Everybody was wonderful, knowledgable, kind, helpful. Your documents are excellent. The family and the culture courses alone are worth going there for. Their excursions, too, are excellent."

-Businessman, Gledale, WI

"Interested in improving your Spanish and experiencing home life in Mexico? Consider student tours and low-priced study programs. Check offers announced by NRCSA."

Executive Suite and Lounge
Executives are usually extremely busy and often need to be in contact with their home offices. The school provides a special suite and lounge for the exclusive use of participants in the Executive Programs. The Executive Suite has a full time bilingual assistant who is available to help participants in the Program with any arrangements they need. Also available in the Suite are telephones, e-mail, fax machine, computer, ongoing news reports, printer, private work areas, and a lounge.

Intensive Spanish Language Program for Health Care Professionals Through the Intensive Spanish Health Care Program, health care professionals will develop skills and knowledge that will enhance their effectiveness with Spanish-speaking patients or clients. Terminology and information specific to the health care field is part of the curriculum.

The Intensive Spanish Language Program for Health Care Professionals is designed to meet individual's interest, profession and Spanish proficiency level. It emphasizes medical and psychological terminology, vocabulary and activities that fit the health care professional's needs to not only communicate with the Hispanic population, but also understand its cultural issues.

A typical daily schedule begins at 8 am and ends at 4 pm, Monday through Friday: 1) Three hours of Spanish classes with no more than five students per class. 2) Two hours of Latin American courses in social sciences and humanities. 3) One hour of lectures (Conferencia) in History of Medicine, Mexican Medical Institutions, Traditional Medicine and other subjects in health care. 4) Two hours of optional classes based on individual needs and interests.

Intensive High School Program 30 hours per week of Spanish study for 15 through 17 year olds.

The Children's Program The Children's Program is a fun way to start learning Spanish at a young age. There are two main components of the program:

* Academic activities.
* Recreational activities.

Academic Activities
Based on multiple teaching methods, the program focuses on communicative skills, while using an array of educational materials that will lead children to learn Spanish effectively. Academic focuses include:

* Oral and auditory skills, vocabulary acquisition.
* Reading and correct pronunciation.
* Hand-writing, drawing, cutting, modeling, etc.
* Homework practice (optional).

Recreational Activities
Children learn Spanish while participating in:

* Role playing with social integration.
* Hand-on activities such as mask making, pinatas, ceramics and kite decoration/flying.
* Sports: Swimming, Soccer, and more.
* Theater and oral expression.
* Workshops: Songs, Music, and Photography.
* Meetings and games with Mexican children of similar ages.
* Excursions and cultural events: Visits to diverse recreational and educational centers.

The daily schedule will consist of 3 hours of Spanish classes in small groups, 1 hour lunch break and short rest time, and 2 hours of recreational activities. Parents will receive reports detailing their child's progress in the program.

A team of 20 teachers, supervisors, coordinators, and technical staff operate the Children's Program. They are all carefully chosen, and have significant experience in accommodating the needs of children. This program is available for children who are traveling with a parent or parents enrolled in a language program at the Universidad Internacional.
Admissions & Academic Credit

Students age 17 years and older are welcomed regardless of educational background, occupation or nationality. Students under the age of 17 must be accompanied by an adult unless registered for the Teen program. No previous knowledge of Spanish is required except where otherwise indicated.

Students desiring credit for their study programs should contact their home school or request the NRCSA Credit Fact Sheet. Generally, U.S. universities consider 15 hours of study to be equal to 1 semester credit.

The University is accredited by the Universidad Autónoma del Estado de Morelos (UAEM as of 3/18/93 code 92-I-1). All of its programs have been formally recognized by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools in a recent evaluation of the SUNY-Brockport Study Abroad Program at the school (1996).

Hundreds of U.S. universities have given credit for study at this institute based on preauthorization. Generally, one credit is given for each week of Spanish study (20 hours). Grades consist of an A-F or Pass/Fail. The instructors keep a daily record of each student's performance and of the material covered in class. A final examination can be given upon request. A written summary of your course work and individual achievement can be provided for a student requesting credit. Credit can also be given for mini courses. One credit is usually given for each 16 hours of class. A 2-3 page report must be written if the mini course is to be taken for credit. The critique, composed in Spanish, must evaluate both course content and the instructor's performance.
