DON QUIJOTE – PUERTO DE LA CRUZ, SPAIN

ABOUT THE SCHOOL AND THE CITY

Don Quijote was established in 1986 with a the primary aim to teach Spanish as effectively and pleasantly as possible to students from all over the world. Students come from all over Europe and countries such as the United States, Russia, Canada, and Japan.

Each Don Quijote school has a central meeting area, a living room for reading and watching TV, and self-study facilities with computers, e-mail and internet access and a wide variety of books. All Don Quijote teachers are native speakers with wide experience teaching their language to foreigners and have university degrees.

Puerto de la Cruz is located on the Canary Island of Tenerife. The island is the largest of the archipelago at 2,053 square kilometers with a large variety of plant life, black and gold beaches and an extensive chain of mountains. Tenerife is known as the island of eternal spring because of its peerless climate, but it is also full of huge climatic contrasts and biodiversity.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Don Quijote uses the interactive method of teaching based on learning by practice. This means that grammar is covered, but as much as possible taught using practical situations. Use of overhead projectors, video and other audiovisual materials complement the interactive method. Each lesson is 50 minutes.

Intensive Course & Superintensive Course 20 OR 30 hours per week. Lessons are taught for 4 or 6 hours daily. Subjects covered in these courses depend on the language level and include everyday situations, vocabulary and idiomatic expressions, styles of language use, grammar, and cultural factors. In addition, one extra class per day on special topics is included in the cost, like Gastronomy, Spanish history, etc.

Teacher Refresher Course 2 weeks, 20 hours per week. Don Quijote offers a 'Curso de Repaso' for teachers of Spanish. The main purpose of this 2 week course is to support teachers of Spanish by bringing their theoretical knowledge and their teaching methods up to date. Emphasis is to revitalize linguistic and didactic abilities and refreshment of social-economic and political-cultural knowledge of Spain.

Special Flight Crew Course in Madrid Only 2 weeks, 30 hours per week. Elementary Level Required. Don Quijote has developed a course for airline cabin crew use. Emphasis is on improvement of communications skills such as aeronautical, meteorological, security/emergency vocabulary. A lot of attention is also given to forms of courtesy. This 2 week course consists of 4 hours general Spanish and 2 hours of specialization per day.
